to the directions, the more Pearlline will do for you—especially so in washing clothes.

Even the hit or miss way in which many use Pearlline is better than soap-using. But soaking, boiling, and rinsing the clothes—according to directions—is best of all—better for clothes; better for you. Use no soap with it.

MISS EVANS WEDS.

ACCOMPLISHED DAUGHTER OF COL. EVANS BECOMES MRS. DE CORR.

ABOUT VACCINATION IN MANCHESTER.

Board of Health Wants All the People Vaccinated—Dr. Ingram Will Write to the Council—Want Mole's Body Brought from Cuba.

With the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Catholic Church, Mr. J. A. DeCorr, of Richmond, and Miss Florence C. Evans, of Manchester, were married at St. Peter's Cathedral, in Richmond, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Right Rev. A. Van de Vyver officiated.

The Cathedral was filled with friends, who had come to witness this happy event in the lives of these popular young people. While Miss Nina Randolph played the wedding march, the bride party entered and proceeded down the aisle to the altar in the following order: The ushers; Mr. C. E. Anderson, of New Brunswick, N. J., with Mr. J. A. Leonard, of Richmond; Mr. J. Woods with Mr. J. E. Phillips, both of Richmond; the groom-elect with Dr. B. A. Daley, best man, and last, the bride-elect with her maid of honor and cousin, Miss Sophia Evans, of Philadelphia. Bishop Van de Vyver awaited them at the altar and performed the ceremony.

The Bishop's address to this young couple was one of the most beautiful and appropriate ever heard on such an occasion. It was a masterpiece of its kind, and will not soon be forgotten. The bride and groom left the church in the reverse order of that in which it entered.

LEE CAMP HONORS THE BRIDE.
Mr. and Mrs. DeCorr and their friends were then driven to the residence of the bride's parents, No. 21 West Ninth street, Manchester, where during the afternoon evening they tendered a reception to their friends. A grand and happy occasion, young and old, from Richmond and Manchester, called and expressed their congratulations and good wishes.

One event of the ceremony at the church, which also at the reception, which will not be forgotten for the future, was the presentation of a delegation, thirty strong, from R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, of Richmond; the commander of Pickett's Camp; Mr. E. Leslie Spence, Jr., commander of the Sons of the Revolution; Mr. Edwin P. Cox, grand commander of the Sons of Veterans. The veterans of Lee Camp performed a most graceful act at the house during the reception. They presented the bride with a splendid medal from the camp. The presentation was made by Commander Peay, of the camp, and Mrs. DeCorr received it gracefully. Mrs. DeCorr has always been a great favorite with this great Richmond organization, and it took this graceful and happy act to express her good will. It was no slight honor to have such a representative and prominent body as this to give such signal evidence of its appreciation, and doubtless both Mr. and Mrs. DeCorr will cherish the gift very highly, not so much for the intrinsic value, though it is handsome, indeed, but for what it carries with it.

Mr. and Mrs. DeCorr were the recipients also of a large number of handsome and valuable presents, many coming from the friends of the bride, and many from friends and others from the friends of the groom.

During the evening refreshments were served, the amply-laden board being presided over by Mrs. Evans, mother of the bride.

LEAVE FOR NORTHERN TRIP.
Mr. and Mrs. DeCorr left on the 7:30 train last evening for an extended northern trip, which will take in Philadelphia, where the bride has relatives and friends, and also New York. Upon their return they will reside at No. 21 West Ninth street, this city.

The bride is a daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Arthur G. Evans, an accomplished and pretty young lady. She is a graceful, elegant, and charming young woman, and has been a member of the Richmond branch of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. DeCorr is very well known and popular in Richmond, and holds the responsible position of train dispatcher of the Atlantic Coast Line.

WILL ASK FOR VACCINATION.
Dr. Lawrence Ingram, president of the Manchester Board of Health, will send a communication to the Manchester Council to-morrow night, urging a general vaccination of the citizens, and will ask an appropriation to this end. Richmond has already taken this action, and $2500 has been appropriated. Dr. Ingram sent a similar communication to the Council some time ago, when the small-pox scare was on, but it was tabled.

WANT BODY BROUGHT BACK.
Mr. Mole, of this city, father of Private Mole, of the Fourth Virginia Regiment, who died in Cuba some days ago, has been to see the Governor to get him to use his influence to have the United States Government to have the body of young Mole brought to Manchester for interment. The Governor has written to the War Department, and expects to hear from them to-day. Mr. Mole was, before enlisted, a member of the Manchester Grays.

The funeral of Miss Julia E. Turpin, who died at the residence of her cousin, Mr. E. N. Gregory, No. 1107 Bainbridge street, early Tuesday morning, will take place from the First Baptist church, Richmond, this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the interment will be in Shockoe Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucy H. Reams took place yesterday afternoon, and was conducted by Rev. Dr. L. R. Thornhill, assisted by Revs. J. A. Spencer and J. A. Sullivan. Captain Cunningham sang a solo. The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Honorary Dr. T. P. Mathews, Judge John H. Ingram, and Messrs. W. D. Toier and A. B. Bayley.

Active-Messrs. A. T. Shellings, R. C. Broadbent, John E. Utz, Charles E. Friend, and Joseph Davidson.

SOME NEWSY NOTES.
The Manchester Council will meet in regular session to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. There seems very little to be done at this monthly session.

The Light Committee will meet at 7:30, and it is understood will receive a petition from citizens in the neighborhood of Thirtieth and Bainbridge streets for an arc-light.

At a regular meeting of Manchester Lodge, No. 1217, Royal Arcanum, Tuesday night, the following officers were elected: J. G. Rice, regent; Charles Burkett, vice-regent; George E. Gary, secretary; Charles H. Walker, collector; L. M. Nunnally, treasurer; J. T. Jewett, warden; A. J. Smith, guide; L. P. Pool, orator; J. T. Herring, sentinel; E. D. Duval, chaplain. Trustees—A. R. Adams, Augustine Royall, H. C. Beattie. At the installation of the officers on the 24th instant, a banquet will be given.

Harrison Page has been tried by the Chesterfield County Court on the charge of breaking into the residence of Mr. J. H. Parker, at Drewry's Bluff, and was acquitted. His counsel, E. P. Pool, of this city, was counsel for the accused. The court has adjourned for the term.

AFTERNAP.

There is no denying the serious fact that there is a great amount of sickness from the grip; that overworked men and women now suffer more than at any other time of the year from lassitude, headaches, slight chills and fever, and other symptoms of imperfect health; that people fall sick more readily now than at any other time of the year, and that whenever an epidemic does appear it invariably plays havoc with those who are run down and out of condition.

The utmost caution should be taken to keep the blood pure and the nervous system in healthy tone.

There is no more excuse for the prevalent symptoms of stagnant, impure blood in the body than there is for the barbarism of filthy streets in a city.

The relaxed and sluggish action of the excretory organs loads the body with waste material that poisons it and brings on headache, rheumatic pains, sleepless nights, and profligate days, due solely to the circulation in the blood, or deposit in the tissues, of these waste matters, which Paine's celery compound alone will quickly drive out.

When the arms, hips, or back feel the twinges of acute rheumatism it is high time to relieve the kidneys and bladder from the strain that so often brings on Bright's disease, gravel, dropsy, and complications of diseases with other organs whose health depends upon the purity of the blood.

Prompt use of Paine's celery compound will save the weakened parts from yielding to disease.

In its peculiar ability to invigorate the body, to make new blood, and to regulate the nerves lies the great value of Paine's celery compound in all wasting diseases and disorders of the kidneys, liver, and stomach.

Paine's celery compound rescues shaky, enfeebled nerves from prostration and removes that feeling of utter exhaustion that causes so much despondency among so many worried men and women.

It makes flesh, blood, and strong nerves.

Paine's celery compound is not a patent medicine! It is not the discovery of some quack doctor of whom his profession never heard; it is not a concoction put up by some man who first invented a name and then adopted a preparation to fit it; it is not a secret remedy.
